

Expand your flavors to wow your customers

PHT Systems views each of our clients as part of our team. That means we want to see your customers happy just as much as you do. Let us help you elevate your cooked foods with our breading and seasoning options – including a customized flavor that’s uniquely yours. Take your menu to the next level with PHT Systems.

Breading their taste buds will love

Whether you are frying chicken, pork chops, potatoes, or more, the right breading makes all the difference. We offer a variety of options to enhance your products’ taste and texture and delight your customers.

Seasoning and marinades for every craving

Blends that give you sweet, spicy, or savory flavors can expand your menu and bring in additional revenue. We will work to understand your business and then recommend the best options to engage your customers’ taste buds.

Custom blends unique to your business

PHT Systems offers our own line of breadings and seasonings. We can also customize a new flavor just for you to keep your customers coming back!

Breading and seasoning mastery

With our extensive knowledge and experience, we can offer you guidance on how to produce the best flavors with our breading and seasoning. Whether you are searching for the perfect amount of crunchiness or looking for the right combination of flavors, we can help you turn customers into raving fans.

With over 40 years of experience in the foodservice industry, we understand that the key to flavor is in the right breading and seasoning. Partner with PHT Systems and let us help you wow your customers with delicious flavor profiles that will make you stand out from the competition.
